Welcome to your summer

01 / THE CAMP AT A GLANCE

Football is more than a game. It is a chance to learn, build confidence, make friends and become part of a team. Our camp brings together technical development, match play and shared experiences, with a focus on progress and enjoyment.

This booking guide helps families explore the camp options, understand the booking process and prepare the questions to ask before confirming a place.

// KEY INFORMATION

Season: Summer 2027

Age range: 7 to 17, for boys and girls

Sessions: Two weekly sessions advertised

Plans: Residential or day

02 / PROGRAMMES AND PLANS

// EXPLORE THE PROGRAMMES

The website lists three football camp options: Football Pro, Football Experience and Junior Football. Review the programme information and ask the camp which option best suits your player's age, experience and interests.

// A PLACE FOR EVERY YOUNG PLAYER

The camp welcomes players aged 7 to 17. The website FAQ states that players are grouped by age and ability so that training takes place at an appropriate level. Confirm the age requirements for your selected programme.

// RESIDENTIAL OR DAY

Residential and day plans are advertised. The FAQ states that residential plans include all meals and day camp includes lunch and snacks. It describes supervised on-site accommodation, with rooms shared by players of the same age and gender. Confirm the arrangements for your chosen session.

// FOOTBALL AND DEVELOPMENT

Activities include technical skills, team challenges, small-sided games and match experience. These support technique, game awareness and teamwork, alongside confidence and communication.

// FACILITIES

The website lists a training centre, indoor sports hall and changing facilities, as well as outdoor football pitches, training grounds and recreation areas. Ask which facilities are included in your programme.

How to book

03 / YOUR BOOKING STEPS

// 1. CHOOSE YOUR PROGRAMME

Explore the camp options and identify the programme that suits your player. Confirm age eligibility and discuss the player's experience with the camp if you need help choosing.

// 2. CHECK DATES AND YOUR PLAN

Choose your preferred session and a residential or day plan. Obtain the exact dates, available places, total fee and details of what is included before proceeding.

// 3. SELECT REGISTER NOW

The website directs families to choose their camp, dates and plan, then select Register Now. The supplied page says online booking will open soon. Contact the camp to check when registration is available.

// 4. REVIEW THE FINAL TERMS

Before paying, confirm the payment arrangements, cancellation terms and any additional charges. Ask whether an early-booking or sibling discount applies and obtain the confirmed offer conditions.

// 5. CONFIRM PLAYER REQUIREMENTS

Discuss dietary needs, allergies, medical information and any support requirements. Ask how to provide the required details and what information you will receive after your booking is confirmed.

Prepare for camp

04 / WHAT FAMILIES NEED TO KNOW

// WHAT TO BRING

The website FAQ lists football boots, trainers for indoor sessions, shin pads, a water bottle, sun cream and weather-appropriate clothing. Refer to the Family Guide for the full kit list and ask about any additional requirements for residential players.

// A TYPICAL TRAINING DAY

The FAQ describes morning technical sessions, afternoon tactical work and small-sided games, with evening activities for residential players. The activities page shows an illustrative daily timetable. Confirm the final schedule and arrival and collection times with the camp.

// FOOD AND DIETARY REQUIREMENTS

The FAQ states that dietary requirements can be accommodated. Discuss your player's needs before booking and confirm meal arrangements for the selected plan.

// COACHING AND PLAYER SUPPORT

The coaching approach focuses on player development, encouragement and working in groups. The coaches page states that final staffing, qualifications, safeguarding checks, first-aid provision and supervision arrangements are to be confirmed. Ask the camp for these details before booking.

// ARRIVAL AND YOUR STAY

Confirm the venue and entrance, check-in arrangements, collection procedure and, where relevant, accommodation details. Request the final pre-arrival information for your selected session.

Final checks and contact

05 / CONFIRM YOUR ARRANGEMENTS

// CANCELLATIONS AND DISCOUNTS

The dates and prices page marks its cancellation policy as provisional. It lists periods of more than 60 days, 30-60 days and under 30 days, but refund amounts and administration fees are not final. Early-booking and sibling offers also contain details awaiting confirmation. Obtain the final policy and offer terms before paying.

// YOUR BOOKING CHECKLIST

Confirm each item with the camp:

- Programme, age eligibility and suitable player group
- Exact dates, available places and residential or day plan
- Full price, inclusions, payment schedule and any discounts
- Cancellation terms and any additional charges
- Dietary, medical and support arrangements
- Staffing, safeguarding, first aid and supervision
- Venue, arrival, collection and accommodation details
